

VICE-PRESIDENT

The Vice-President replaces the President in their absence or inability to perform the functions of that office and ensures the President's duties are carried out, as necessary.